FOUND

Em7          G          D          A
That I may never be faithless, Though I may never be sure
Em7          G          D          A
That I may never be hopeless, Though I may never feel secure
Em7          G          D          A
That I may never be homeless, Though I may never be warm
Em7          G          D          A/C#
That I may never be peaceless, Though I may never calm the storm

A          Bm          D/F#          G
It’s breaking me down, I’m at your feet,
D          G          A
It’s making me all I need to be chorus

Bm          D          Bm          D          Bm          D          A/C#
That I may be found, That I may be found, That I may be found
G          A          { D  -  G  -  Bm  -  A }
That I may be found, in you.

Em7          G          D          A
That I may ever be willing, Though I may never feel right
Em7          G          D          A
That I may ever be searching, For what may never come in sight
Em7          G          D          A
That I may ever be moving, Though I may never know where
Em7          G          D          A/C#
That I may ever be mending, Though ever finding disrepair

A          Bm          D/F#          G
Until this is gone and You remain
D          G          A
In losing my life my greatest gain

Words and music by Matthew Christopher Davidson © 2001 From Under the Rubble Music (SOCAN)