Have Thine Own Way – Words: Adelaide A. Pollard, Music: George C. Stebbins – 1907

E  B
Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
        B                E
Thou art the Potter, I am the clay.
E     A
Mold me and make me after Thy will,
        E          B            E
While I am waiting, yielded and still.

E  B
Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
        B                E
Search me and try me, Master, today!
E     A
Whiter than snow, Lord, wash me just now,
        E          B            E
As in Thy presence humbly I bow.

E  B
Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
        B                E
Wounded and weary, help me, I pray!
E     A
Power, all power, surely is Thine!
        E          B            E
Touch me and heal me, Savior divine.

E  B
Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
        B                E
Hold o’er my being absolute sway!
E     A
Fill with Thy Spirit ’till all shall see
        E          B            E
Christ only, always, living in me.
