Here is Love

D                 G                 D                  A
Here is love, vast as the ocean, Loving-kindness as a flood,
D                 G                 D                  A                  D
When the Prince of Life, for ransom, Shed for us His precious blood.
D/F#               A
Who His love will not remember? Who can cease to sing His praise?
D                     /C#         Bm                      G                  D                  A                  D
He can never be forgotten, Throughout heav'n’s eternal days.

D                 G                 D                  A
On the mount of crucifixion, fountains opened deep and wide;
D                 G                 D                  A                  D
Through the floodgates of God’s mercy flowed a vast and gracious tide.
D/F#               A
Grace and love, like mighty rivers, poured incessant from above,
D                     /C#         Bm                      G                  D                  A                  D
And heav’n’s peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.

D                 G                 D                  A
Let me all Your love accepting, love You, ever all my days;
D                 G                 D                  A                  D
Let me seek Your kingdom only, and my life be to Your praise;
D/F#               A
You alone shall be my glory, nothing in the world I seek.
D                     /C#         Bm                      G                  D                  A                  D
You have cleansed and sanctified me, You alone have set me free.

E                     A                     E                     B
In your truth You do direct me by your Spirit through your Word;
E                     A                     E                     B                     E
And your grace my need is meeting, as I trust in You, my Lord.
E/G#                   B                     E
Of your fullness You are pouring your great love and power on me,
E                     /D#                  C#m                      A                     E                     B                     E
Without measure, full and boundless, drawing out my heart to Thee.
