Here is Love

{E    A}

E                         A                      E                      B
Here is love, vast as the ocean, Loving-kindness as a flood,
E                          A                           E          B
When the Prince of Life, for ransom, Shed for us His precious blood.
E/G#                  B                                                          E
Who His love will not remember? Who can cease to sing His praise?
E         C
#m              A                             E             B          E
He can never be forgotten, Throughout heav’n’s eternal days.

{E    A}

E                         A                      E                      B
On the mount of crucifixion, fountains opened deep and wide;
E                          A                           E          B
Through the floodgates of God’s mercy flowed a vast and gracious tide.
E/G#                  B                                                          E
Grace and love, like mighty rivers, poured incessant from above,
E         C#m              A                             E             B          E
And heav’n’s peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.

{E    A    D/F#    G}

G                      C                           G                 D
Let me all Your love accepting, love You, ever all my days;
G                          C                           G         D
Let me seek Your kingdom only, and my life be to Your praise;
G/B                          D                                                          G
You alone shall be my glory, nothing in the world I seek.
Em                         C                                  G             D
You have cleansed and sanctified me, You alone have set me free.

G/B                     D                                  G
Grace and love, like mighty rivers, poured incessant from above,
Em                         C                                  G         D
And heav’n’s peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.
