VERSE 1
Am    G    C
His appearance was so badly marred
F    Am
He could not have been recognized
Am    G    C    F
So disfigured, so beyond all human likeness
Am
That we hid our eyes

VERSE 2
Am    G    C    F
Though he carried all our griefs and bore our sorrows
Am
We esteemed him not
Am    G    C    F
But despised him and considered him afflicted
Am    G
And as one reviled by God

CHORUS 1
F
Though all of us have gone astray
Am
Though all have turned to their own ways
G    F
The Lord has laid our wickedness on him
F
His punishment has brought us peace
Am
And crushed for our iniquities
G    Dm
He died to save his people from their sin

VERSE 3
Am    G    C    F    Am
He was stricken, and though pierced for our transgressions, He did not lash out
Am    G    C    F
But was silent, like a lamb led to the slaughter
Am    G
So he opened not his mouth

Bridge
F    Am    C    G
The might of Yahweh
F    Am    G
Stands revealed
F    Am    C    G
And by his wounds we
F    Am    G
All are healed
CHORUS 2
G
He offered up his soul to death
Bm
He poured it out till none was left
Em
He died but now shall rise and surely see
G
The many he has righteous made
Bm
And satisfied, his work surveyed,
The man of sorrows ever more shall be
G
On high, exalted, lifted up
Bm
The righteous servant raised above
Em
His mighty hand shall work the will of God
G
The nations all shall hear and see
Bm
Astonished at his victory
The kings of men shall shut their mouths in awe!
