“Sweet Is His Love” (Romans 8:28-39) – by Katie Freeze ©2001 Broucek LLC

F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7
Are you wondering about those tears?
F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
Ten thousand sorrows, and as many joys.
F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
The ache of the living, and the silence of the dying—
F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
These things shall all pass away.

A  B  A/C#  B/D#  E
Nothing, nothing, nothing in this world
A  B  A/C#  B/D#  E
can ever separate us, separate us from him.
A  B  A/C#  B/D#  E
Nothing, nothing, nothing in all creation
A  B  A/C#  B/D#  E
can ever separate us, separate us from him.

F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
Angels, triumphant angels—they’ll be bringing good news.
F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
And demons, many demons—they’ll be talking to you.
F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
And the cries of the living, and the fears of the dying—
F#m9  G#m7  Amaj7  B
These things shall all pass away.

CHORUS

BRIDGE (2x):
A  E  B  A  E  B
Sweet is his love and good is his word.
A  E  B  A  E  B
He walks with us; oh, how sweet is his love.
