Dm
The Father's love is deep and wide for the Son and for His bride; And His grace has been outpoured through the passion of our Lord.

Dm/G
Down the road and up the hill letting go of His own will;

Dm
For the sake of all the lost, grace not cheap, but with a cost.

Dm
The truth of God was tested, tried, flesh was torn, they pierced His side. Through the crown, his blood did flow, going where we could not go.

Bb             Dm             G7(9)             Em
Savior God, the Wounded King sings the song we cannot sing.

Dm
Adam died, but Christ now lives. We have sinned still He forgives.

Dm
The Savior calls our souls to bend, not to our will but to His end. And while His grace does satisfy, He bids us come, to come and die.

Bb             F             C             Am
The table stained with truth and grace, the chalice poured and set in place.

Dm
Hold the cup and lift it high now drink with me we go to die.

Solo:  Bb – Dm – G7(9) – Em – Bb – F – C – Am – Dm

Dm
Not by our life, not by our death, not by the words we fill with breath, Not by the work our hands have done, not through our daughters or our sons.

Bb             Dm             G7(9)             Am
Not by the treasure that we give do we gain the right to live.

Dm
The only way we will know life is through the One named Jesus Christ.
